Brief summary of matter:

A Conservation Area (CA) Appraisal was recently completed for the Royds Estate and Conservation Area and Elstree Village CA. This was associated with the making of an Article 4 Direction for both CAs and the introduction of a design guide for the Royds Estate. The views of residents were sought on the above through public consultation and one objection to the Article 4 in the Royds was received, which has been reported to the Portfolio Holder, in a PFH report on 4 March 2015. Due to a minor discrepancy in the original Article 4 Direction and changes to the relevant regulations, the Article 4 had to be remade. No further objections were received.

Consultation with Portfolio-holder and Response

A subsequent email of 10 July to the PFH stated
“... There have been no new representations to the reserved Article 4 and so we are intending to confirm the Order next week. There was a single objection to the original Article 4 which was previously reported to you when you signed off the Appraisals in March. We have since spoken
