Dear Mrs Darnell,

Thank you for your acknowledgement, but I have belatedly realised I sent you an unfinished Word version. The attached completed pdf has no material changes, simply the addition of your address, and deletion of some references to another local authority in the introductory paragraph, and in page 2 within the paragraph above the Woodland Access Standard table.

I hope you are able to accept the attached as the correct version.

Best wishes,
Richard

Dear Madam/Sir,

I have tried to upload the attached information to your response form, but this ruined the format of your document. I hope you can accept this submission in isolation – if you prefer I could send a separate response form linked to this submission?

Best wishes,
Richard
