

Customer feedback procedure

Comments, compliments and complaints

Working with you, for you, improving our communities, our places

Our promise to you

We aim to provide high-quality services for everyone in the Hertsmere area. We need you to tell us what you think of these services and let us know whether they live up to your expectations. Your feedback gives us the opportunity to improve the services we provide for you.

What is a comment or compliment?

You can make a comment or give a compliment if you:

- want to let us know what you think about our services;
- have ideas on how we can improve our services;
- want to comment on our policies; or
- want to let us know you are satisfied with a service or a particular member of staff.

How to make a comment or give a compliment

You can make a comment or give a compliment:

- using online form;
- in person at the Civic Offices or the area offices in Bushey and Potters Bar;
- by phone;
- by letter;
- by email customers.services@hertsmere.gov.uk; or
- by using the customer feedback form attached to this leaflet. You can also get one from any of our offices, details of which can be found on the back of this document, or from our website at www.hertsmere.gov.uk

Comments, suggestions or compliments

- If you have a comment or suggestion we will carefully consider what you have said and see if we can improve the service we provide;
- If you have a compliment for us, we will happily pass it on to the person or service involved;
- We will send you a reply in writing within 10 working days to let you know what we have decided after considering your comments.

Complaints

A complaint is when you tell us you are not happy. For example, you can complain if:

- we have not done something we should have done;
- we have done something badly or in the wrong way; or
- you think you have been treated unfairly or impolitely.

We are committed to putting you first and providing a quality customer service.

We will:

- deal with your complaint quickly and fairly;
- tell you what is happening with your complaint and do everything we can to help you;
- only reveal your identity to people who need to know it;
- explain our decision; and
- use your complaint to review and improve the way we provide services.

Your right to a council service will not be affected if you make a complaint.

How to make a complaint

You can complain:

- using online form;
- in person at the Civic Offices and the area offices in Bushey and Potters Bar;
- by phone;
- by letter; or
- by email on customer.services@hertsmere.gov.uk

There are three stages to a complaint.

Stage one

We will try to deal with your complaint informally. This means that you should phone, email or write to the team who provide the service you are complaining about. Our staff will do their best to settle your complaint without you needing to do anything else. We will respond to your complaint in writing within 10 working days.

If we cannot sort out your complaint within 10 working days, we will write to you and let you know:

- when you can expect an answer from us; and
- the name of the person who is dealing with your complaint.

By law, we need to deal with some complaints in a different way. If so, we will tell you and give you more information.

Stage two

If you are still not happy after stage one, the next step is for you to make a formal complaint.

At this stage you should put your complaint in writing to the Complaints Officer. You can do this by:

- writing a letter;
- filling in a customer feedback form, which is attached to this leaflet. You can also get forms from any of our offices or from our website www.hertsmere.gov.uk
- email

Please ask a member of our customer services team if you need help to write your complaint or fill in the form.

We will then write to you within five working days to tell you who will be dealing with your complaint and to give you a reference number. This information will make it easier for you to contact the person dealing with your complaint if you need to.

The officer dealing with your complaint will:

- consider all the details;
- take any necessary action; and
- make sure you receive a written reply within another 15 working days.

If we cannot send you a written reply within 15 working days, we will write to you to:

- tell you why we need more time; and
- let you know when you will receive a written reply.

Stage three

If you have been through stages one and two and you are still not happy, you can ask our Complaints Officer to refer the matter to one of our directors. They will decide whether we should carry out an investigation. They will consider whether carrying out an investigation is likely to lead to a response which you will find helpful.

If the director thinks that it would not be useful, the Complaints Advisory Panel (made up of three councillors) will then consider whether or not an investigation by us would be appropriate. The Complaints Officer will write to you within 20 working days to tell you the panel's decision.

If we cannot make a decision within 20 working days, we will write to you to let you know when you will receive a written response.

If the Complaints Advisory Panel decides that we should carry out an investigation, a senior officer who has not already been involved will be responsible. He or she will prepare a report for the Chief Executive. The senior officer will contact you as part of their investigation. The Chief Executive will write to you within a further 30 working days to explain what he is going to do about your complaint.
